Chased by French Aeroplanes. Thirty French aeroplanes searched the remote air regions above Paris late tonight for a Zeppelin raider of whose appearance warning had been given. By the time it had reached the edge of the old quarters of the city several of the airmen were able to make out its pale yellow shape 14,000 feet from the earth. Frightened, doubtless, by the numerous war planes doubtiess, by the numerous war planes rising towards it, the Zeppelin wheel-ed and drove at full speed northward, dropping in its wake in the darkness a cargo of 3 1-2 tons of bombs. Then continuing its flight at a great altitude, the airship vanished

Had Been Warned.

The Parisians had been warned a half an hour before firing and brought the streets trumpeting the call known as "Stand to arms" of the Cpresence of the raider. The electric lights went out and policemen cautioned careless householders to close their shutters and darken their windows and imme-diately. It was still early in the night, close to ten o'cock and many persons were in the streets, the cafes were open and the moving picture theatres and playhouses still entertaining their audience. Then, in all parts of the city could be heard the whirr of numerous aeronians providers while average properties. erous aeropiane propellors, while ev-erywhere people went upon the bal-conies to watch for Zeppelins.

Series of Detonations. Few Parisians appeared to believe the raiders were likely to come, as they had been turned back many times previously. But suddenly in the northeast of Paris there was a great flare in the sky as the Zeppelin dropped an illuminant so that those in the airship might see whether they was airship might see whether they street, crashing through into the bubway and tearing a hole 15 feet in diameter, but injuring no one. San Diego, Calif., Jan. 30,-Looting, described by Rear Admiral Fullam, commanding the Pacific reserve fleet as "the worst I have ever seen," broke out today on the Otay Valley, flood-swept by the breaking of the Otay dam last Friday. The lower valley was turned into an armed camp, patrolled by marines and sallors from the battleship Oregon and the cruisers Milwaukee and South Dakota in San Diego bay with orders to shoot looters

The loss of life in the Otay valley now is estimated at 50, while reports that the cloudburst in San Luis Rey and San Pasqual valleys cost no more than ten lives brought the probable death list in this section to sixty. A new flood poured down the Tia Juana river today which has risen four feet at its mouth at the foot of San Diego bay.

A telephone message from Tecate said it was reported there that the Morena dam, 60 miles back in the hills had burst. "Get back," cried the Japanese in broken English. "Tell people lots water coming."

Ervast could see a four foot wave coming down the river. He turned his automobile and spread the warning. George Cromwell, city engineer of San Diego, and others, said that nothing but the breaking of the Morena dam could have caused the flood. The dam stood 255 feet high in a narrow gauge and was built of masonry and reinforced concrete.

The water supply was taken from the reservoir formed by the dam by a tunnel into the creek, which fed the lower Otay dam, but the natural channel for the water led into the Tiajuana river.

The striking differences between the new bill and the one which failed in the senate last year are modifications the senate last year are modifications of the government operation feature and broadening of the powers of the shipping board which it is proposed to create. Government operation under the new bill would be entered upon only as a last resort, if private capital failed to respond to the enterprise. The shipping board would be empowered to regulate all interstate and foreign to regulate all interstate and foreign commerce in American waters as the interstate commerce commission now regulates interstate railroad traffic. Every effort has been made to draw the bill so as to encourage American capital to help upbuild the merchant marine and to protect it from unfair foreign competition, and government vessels never would operate on lines where an American service was fur-nishing satisfactory service at fair rates. The out-and-out government ownership feature of the old bill ownership feature of the old bill aroused so much opposition that it was generally conceded to have been one of the primary causes of the failure of the measure.

MRS, MOHR COMPLETES

THIRD DAY'S TESTIMONY Covering Every Detail of Her Life With Dr. Mohr.

Providence, R. L., Jan. 30.—Mrs. Elizabeth F. Mohr yesterday ended a long ordeal on the witness stand during which she made a personal defense of the charge that she had hired three negroes to murder her husband, Dr. C. Franklin Mohr, widely known as a physician in this city and Newport. The examination extended through the greater part of three court days. In this time she faced friendly and unfriendly attorneys who drew from her every detail of her life with Dr. Mohr, Many of these details were given re-luctantly, but she never wavered in her declaration that she had nothing to do with the murder, although she to do with the murder, although she had objected strenuously to her husband's attention to other women.

The testimony of Mrs. Mohr was regarded by the defense as the most important at the trial. Cecil V. Brown and Henry H. Spellman, two negroes who, the state charges, killed Dr. Mohr and wounded Miss Emily Burger, his companion, are yet to be heard.

A letter written by Dr. Mohr in 1909 in which he admitted the validity of their marriage was introduced over the protest of the prosecution. Mrs. Mohr was questioned closely regarding Dr. Mohr's statement in the letter that "I write this in defense of a good woman at present." At that time, she said, she was not living with her husband, but was at her mother's home in Massachusetts. sachusetts.

President Well Pleased with Trip

IS TO SPEAK IN MILWAUKEE TODAY

IN DEFENSE CAMPAIGN

Details of the Army and Navy Plans Are Being Avoided by the President

Cleveland, O., Jan. 30.—President Wilson left Cleveland tonight for Milvaukee, where he plans to deliver of the most important speeches of his middle western trip tomorrow. He is believed to have sounded the keynote of his Milwaukee speech in a telegram sent today to Senator Oille James of Kentucky, to be read before a meeting of Austrians in New York. The tele-ram follows Telegraphs Greetings.

"May I not send my warmest greet-ings to the meeting, and will you not express for me my very deep and sin-cere confidence in the entire loyalty and patriotism of the great body of and patriotism of the great body of our fellow citizens who have strengthened and enriched America by adding their energy to our own out of the nations which have joined in their stocks to make a great America."

Because of the large foreign population in Milwaukee, the president is expected to urge all Americans, no matter where born, to stand for America first. He will also repeat his warning that the United States must be prepared because of the uncertainty of the international situation. international situation.

Brief Platform Speeches.

Before arriving in Milwaukee, the president will deliver brief platform speeches at Waukegan, Ill., Kenosha. Wis., Racine, Wis., and possibly in other towns through which his train will pass. A committee will meet the president at the Milwaukse station and a troop of state cavairy will escort him to the hotel. At 1 o'clock he will ad-dress a public meeting in the audi-torium and will leave at 4 o'clock for Chicago to speak tomorrow night.

Well Pleased With Success.

The president and members of his party have been well pleased with the success of his meetings in Pittsburgh and Cleveland. The arrangements have been kept strictly non-partisan and republicans and democrats have joined in welcoming him. His demands for increased preparedness have met with warm responses from his audiences. While he has talked with some democratic leaders, politics have not been discussed. In each speech he has asked support for his national defense plane from all pagedle referredless of party. from all people, regardless of party.

what will be done To Support Continental Plan.

Notwithstanding the opposition of Chairman Hay of the house military affairs committee and other congressional leaders in Washington to the administration continental army plan, President Wilson expects to continue to support it, giving the reason that the nation needs a trained reserve force under the authority of the federal government. He has taken care, however, to say the national guard should also be strengthened.

Details Are Being Avoided. Details of the army and navy plans are being avoided by the president in his talks to the people. He has generalized by saying a reserve army of at least 500,000 trained men, a larger navy and more coast defenses are needed. He is telling his audiences that the army and navy plans have been carefully drawn up and that the judgment of the executive should be trusted.

Spent Sunday Quietly. With Mrs Wilson the president spent Sunday here quietly. They had an early breakfast in their suite. Apparearly breakfast in their suite. Apparently the president was still fresh in spite of his busy day yesterday. At 11 o'clock they motored five miles to the Euclid avenue Presbyterian church, where Rev. Alexander McGaffin, an old friend of Mr. Wilson, is the pastor. The president's plans were not known in advance and only the usual congregation of the church saw him. At the gation of the church saw him. At the request of the clergyman, everyone re-mained seated until Mr. and Mrs. Wil-son had left. This afternoon they took a long automobile ride and spent the evening in their suite.
